Brownie Bake Sale A Great Success

On Saturday, October 16, Brownie Troop 308 sponsored their first bake sale of the year. Mrs. Louise Layne, pictured in the background, and Mrs. Wanda Simpson, shown serving a customer, (not identified) helped with the sale which proved to be very successful. The parents of the Brownies donated the products which were sold and our thanks goes out to everyone who stopped by to make a purchase.

The Brownies with their leaders, Mrs. Barbara Mayberry, Mrs. Nancy Mayberry, Mrs. Thelma Knight, and Mrs. Mildred Thompson, marched in the Railroad Festival Parade on Saturday.

Afghan Raffle A Winner

The beautiful red, white, and blue afghan being displayed in the picture above by Mrs. Nora Mayberry was made and donated to Brownie Troop 308 by Mrs. Dorothy Bass. A raffle was held on Railroad Festival Day and the winner was Mrs. Peggy Price. Waiting to buy a chance as shown in the picture above is Mrs. Alice Mann and her daughter, Bonnie. Also pictured is Mrs. Jack Mayberry, seated, and Chuck Mayberry. Thanks to everyone who stopped by our table and took a chance on the afghan. The Committee.

Afghan Winner Very Surprised
